Dear Sir or Madam

Mrs

Thank you for your fax dated 30 August 2011.

As you will be aware I have recently had a number of conversations with [REDACTED] regarding the enquiry. In particular, the information I needed to bring matters to a conclusion.

I have asked Nicki to update you with the progress being made after each contact.

I have now received all of the information I need to make my proposals for settlement.

Whilst I still have major concerns with regard to the level of turnover declared I have taken all available factors into consideration. On this basis I propose: on this occasion only, and on a without prejudice basis, to close the enquiry into the 2008/09 tax return, with no adjustment.

Unless I receive any suggestion to the contrary I will take this action within the next 14 days.

Thank you for your cooperation.

I have forwarded a copy of this letter to N [REDACTED]

Yours faithfully

Officer of H M Revenue & Customs
